Changes to permanent speed limits

Transport
for NSW

16 January 2014

Sydney

The changes below are anticipated to take effect in the following two weeks.

Speed limits are set for all roads in NSW in accordance with the NSW Speed Zoning Guidelines. The changes outlined in the table below have been recommended following the completion and approval of a speed zone review by authorised speed zone officers.

This is advanced notice of a proposed speed limit change, however no change will occur until the relevant speed limit signs are changed.

Please ensure that you always observe the posted speed limit signs on the road.

Road name	From	To	Local Government Area	Current speed limit km/h	New speed limit km/h	Reason for change
South Circuit, Oran Park	55 metres north of Main Street	60 metres south of Dick Johnson Drive	Camden	50	40 (School Zone)	This change introduces a school zone speed limit. School zone speed limits apply at prescribed times on government gazetted school days.
Tunstall Avenue / Addison Street, Kensington	30 metres east of Balfour Road	170 metres south west of Balfour Road	Randwick	50	40 (School Zone)	The existing school zone is to be extended to create a safer environment for students and to improve visibility for oncoming motorists.
Balfour Road, Kensington	Addison Street	55 metres north of Addison Street	Randwick	50	40 (School Zone)	As above
Johnston Road, Bass Hill	90 metres north west of Belinda Street	110 metres south east of Belinda Street	Bankstown	50	40 (School Zone)	This change introduces a school zone speed limit. School zone speed limits apply at prescribed times on government gazetted school days.
